

VARGA D/10 or DASAMA “MAHAT PHALAM” DASAMSA OR KARMAMSA OR SWARGAMSA

D-10 – 3° – DASAMSA (SWARGAMSA)

Parasara says that this chart indicates “Mahat Phalam” Mahat (big) Phalam (fruits) - things of great value shown by second, sixth and tenth bhavas : the result which indicates the standing and status of the native in society on account of the interaction of fate and action.

Calculation of the Dasamsa chart:

The divisional chart based on the 10th division of signs is called Dasamsa or Dasamamsa or Karmamsa or Swargamsa.

- Each sign is divided into 10 equal parts.
- If the sign is odd, the 10 parts of the sign go into the 10 consecutive signs starting from the sign itself.
- If the sign is even, the 10 parts of the sign go into the 10 consecutive signs starting from the 9th sign from the sign in question.
- Example:
 - a) Odd sign counting: Counting starts from the sign itself - the 10 parts of Leo go into signs from Leo to Taurus
 - b) Even sign counting: Counting starts from the 9th sign - the 10 parts of Scorpio go into signs from Cancer to Aries.

In “Predicting with Dasamsa”, P. V. R. Narasimha Rao states:

- Dasamamsa chart can identify reasons causing delays and momentary dissatisfaction in profession.
- Dasamamsa Lagna shows renown related to vocation, Lagnesh shows mind-set and purpose in work
- D-10 shows one’s professional actions as well as other activities in society related to hobbies and interests.
- The 10th house in the Rasi chart is also important for judging career as it shows the physical Karma (actions) of the native.
- The strength and placement, in D-10, of the 10th Rasi lord is an important factor when judging career.
- If the 10th lord is in own sign or exaltation sign or a quadrant or a trine in D-10, one will have a good career.
- In addition, we should look at the D-10 placement of the planets involved in any Raja Yogas present in the Rasi chart.

VARGA D/10 or DASAMA "MAHAT PHALAM" DASAMSA OR KARMAMSA OR SWARGAMSA

4. Planets in tenth house in Dasamamsa during their ruling periods will better the prospects of one's career.
5. If there is no planet in tenth house in Dasamamsa, then its lord during its ruling period will confer honour to the native.
6. Planets aspecting lord of tenth house in Dasamamsa should also be considered powerful with respect to one's profession.
7. The period of planets in kendra of Dasamamsa will be a mile stone in one's career.
